

Related Photos

February 28, 2009

AP IMAGES FOR HARD ROCK HOTEL SAN DIEGO

SATURDAY, FEB. 28, 2009--Celebrity tattoo artists and stars of TLC's hit show Miami Ink, Chris Garver (Left) and Darren Brass (Right), put the finishing touches on their unique tattoo-inspired paintings for a charity event at Hard Rock Hotel San Diego. Garver and Brass finished their two original pieces early and continued working through the afternoon to create an additional painting that will benefit the Black Eyed Peas' Peapod Foundation. Chris Garver completed a portrait inspired by one of his favorite musicians--Jimi Hendrix, and Darren Brass inked his canvas using his signature graffiti style of art to focus on a positive theme of hope.